“ My childhood was filled with fun summers of swimming at Grandma Joyce and Grandpa Bill’s house in Chatham. Even though Grandma couldn’t swim, she kept the pool open and running for her kids and grandkids to enjoy. It was at that same house that I was also dealt my first hand in poker. Grandma gave me her coin purse full of change to “gamble” away. Grandma was a fun lady who never missed one of my softball or volleyball games. She was always cheering me on, even after my grandpa passed. She will be missed dearly and always loved.

Love,
Michelle

“ I will sure miss our talks, she loved to come to the office to see the puppies and they sure loved to see her and get those extra love pats. Loved hearing her stories of Trixie. I will miss you Joyce and I will be praying for you all. ❤️
