

Julianne Hindahl

January 12, 1960 - June 13, 2013

Julianne Hindahl, 53, of Havana left this world on June 13, 2013 to join her parents in heaven. She was born on January 12, 1960 in Kalispell, Montana to Bob and Jeannie Wood, the eighth of nine children. Julie was raised in the Somers Lower Valley area and went to Hodgson School and Flathead High School in Kalispell. She also worked at the Log Cabin Cafe and the Lutheran Home in that area.

She married Phillip Allen and of that union was born the love of her life, her son, Kyle Allen. She later remarried and moved to Havana, Illinois, where she started her own cleaning business, making many precious friends in the process.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Bruce Nielsen; and her grandparents.

She is survived by her son, Kyle, his fiancée, and grandchildren: Haylie, Lexi, and Alex; her sisters: Cathy (Gary) Malkuch, Terry Barnhart, Linda (Don) Dale, and Pat (Terry) Baker, all of Kalispell, and Barbara (Fred) Samsel of Texas; her brothers: Tom Wood of Vancouver, Washington and Paul Wood and Ken (Cindy) Wood of Kalispell, Montana; plus many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins, all who loved her dearly.

Julianne, you are a free bird now, fly high. You will be missed by all.

Services are pending in Montana. In Havana, a memorial service will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday, June 22 at the First United Methodist Church with Pastor Sid Davis officiating. Burial will be later at Glacier Memorial Cemetery in Kalispell, Montana, near Julie's parents.

Illinois memorials will be for funeral expenses and a trust fund for Julie's grandchildren. The Julie Hindahl Memorial Fund has been opened at THE National Bank, 101 W Main St., Havana IL 62644 for this purpose.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is assisting with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Julianne Hindahl

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM