“ I worked with Kathy I'm the financial counselor her at SIU. I heart is broken she not just my co-worker she was also my friend. There were many days she come my office or me coming in hers just chatting away about any and everything. She was so funny, real, nice, and amazing person. I know she is at peace with her family in heaven. Even though I'm sad to hear this I'm happy she is a peace. She is gaining her wings in heaven and she can fly away in peace. My thoughts and prayers goes to Kathy family. Even though she is not here in the present but she is always in our hearts. Love You Kathy!!!!

“ I worked with Kathy for several years and she would come into my office to get coffee every morning and would always have a smile on her face and a nice thing to say ALWAYS! During these times Kathy and i talked about many things in life and work! She always knew what to say at the right time to make me feel better!!! There truly is a angel in heaven right now. Kathy truly will be missed by all she touched

“ I worked with Kathy at SIU and my heart is just broken reading this. Many times Kathy would come sit in my office and we would talk about so many things within the work, the world and our families. She had a heart of gold and her kindness was an inspiration to me and everyone she came in contact with. When she would come to see me if I was not in my office she would clip something on my door that would have a personal funny note on it just to make me laugh. Even though she was fighting her own battles, she always encouraged me and I knew no matter what the dire situation was, Kathy and I would always figure it out for the good of the patient. She was just that special. I am holding her family and friends up in the highest prayers.

Until we meet again my friend...

“ She was one of the most beautiful souls I’ve ever met in my life! She had a pure heart of gold! Always made sure every person she came across smiled and was ok even though she was fighting her own battles. Always had a smile on her face. Her hugs could literally take all your worries and stress away because she was just that special! To have known her was truly a blessing!
