“ Your family does not personally know me, but Brock was a very very close friend to my grandson, Cale Ciesler. Our hearts are broken that such a great kid was taken away from his family and friends. I know he was the best friend and son anyone could possibly wish for. My prayers go out to you, his family and to all of those friends that are grieving along with you. I pray that God will ease your pain and let you keep close with all the good memories and feel blessed that this boy, this perfect boy, was given to you while on this earth. He's still with you, just in your heart. ❤️🙏

We are keeping Brock and his family and friends in our prayers. I work with the Diesel program at Spoon River College. I have heard many great things about Brock and know how much his instructors and classmates thought of him. Praying for your strength through memories.
