“ Larry and his sister Celia visited my father their brother Lawrence Kahbeah just a week before Larry's passing. It was great they visited with each other before he went to heaven. He was always fun to talk and visit with and the Kahbeah family in Oklahoma are proud of him. We offer our condolences to his kids and loved one's. We will visit again uncle. My name is Lawrence Kahbeah Jr and plan to make his celebration of life.

“ As a kid in a small town Larry took me and my to brothers under his wings. He was a great mentor and as a adult in life we would cross paths and he always took time to reflect on those time and memories. He truly showed a kind heart to us. Condolences to the family and Larry I'll see you again someday with are father in heaven. God bless
