“ Whenever we got back to Illinois, Danita and I stopped and spent a few hours visiting with Uncle Larry - sitting around his kitchen table drinking coffee (OK - it was usually beer) and listening to his stories. Even though he missed Barb terribly and his mobility was limited he remained a funny, joyful person who remained curious about everything. He was extraordinarily proud of his children and grandchildren. We will pray for comfort for his family in this time of loss and will also give thanks for the many gifts Larry brought to his family, extended family and friends.

“ Just a brief note to express sincerest condolences to the Larry Rebbe family. Larry was married to my sister and he was a loving & caring husband to her. And as their years together increased so did their family - they shared so many memories & raised a wonderful family. After Barb passed, they stood by their father to make sure he was well taken care of - to me, this says what kind of a man he was - a wonderful husband & father. He will be well remembered by many. May you rest in peace, Larry, wrapped in God's love & care. And may your family be blessed with God's comfort through their time of sorrow.
