“ I had never met Lovina until she moved into Riverview Estates a few years ago. Each week when the band my husband and I are in would go there to practice, Lovina would be waiting with a big smile, wearing Mardi Gras beads, and saying, "Music tonight!" She would sing along (with her beautiful voice) and move her arms to the beat. She was filled with joy, and we loved her. I am so glad I had the opportunity to know her. I extend my condolences to her family.

“ Aunt Lovina was a very special and dear lady. Most of my childhood memories are with aunt Bina and uncle Mib and sons. We had a very close bond as i grew up, and as i became a man with my family. My wife Barbara enjoyed our relationship with the Miller's. Aunt Bina will be missed by us all! We have God's promise to be together again! See you in glory! Love you all! “ We never had the privilege to meet this lady with a very unique name, LOVINA. When I think of her name I see in my mind a very loving and kind woman -a Christian! (We do know Rick and Deb.) Many of Mrs. Miller's household items have arrived in Mexico!. We could tell that she was a Godly and generous lady because most of her plastic containers had her name printed with permanent marker. This means that she was always taking food to Church or to those who were sick. I once read some good advice, it goes somewhat like this: "When you were born, everyone was smiling, you were the only one crying; live your life in such a manner that when you die everyone is crying and you are the only one smiling." May God's Holy Comforter hug each Miller family member, the blessing of your Mom's life has reached us and we are grateful.
