“ To the Blair Family--please know our thoughts & prayers are with all of you at this time. Tish (& Buster) were like a second set of parents to me and my sisters. [They stayed with us three older ones when little Amy was born in 1971 so we were not left alone.] So many memories to share with our two families.....from living next door to each other on Jackson Street [1956-57] to big time canasta card games, homemade ice cream on summer nights to them playing Santa Claus while we were at midnight church services on Xmas Eve. Many, many smiles and tears from all of us upon Tish's passing.

With deepest sympathy, Chris Durham Hobrock & her sisters Jan Durham Kahila, Toni Durham and Amy Durham Hance and families

“ At the young age of 17, I began working at First National Bank as a teller with Tish as my supervisor and worked with her for 11 years. As I matured, she was my mentor, my confidante but most of all my friend. We laughed so hard at times that she had tears rolling down her cheeks and would disappear to the back room to compose herself. She always talked proudly and lovingly about her family. I saw her at the nursing home occasionally and always made sure I let her know that she holds a special place in my heart. She will be missed but not forgotten.
