“ Our sympathy to Lois's family. She was a great person to work with. Always teased her that she attended more sporting events to watch her children & then grandkids than 99.9% of most persons. A true loving parent & grandparent. I will cherish the the memories of her as I am sure all of you will also.

“ When the Wisner family moved to Petersburg in 1977, no family extended the hand of friendship more than the Dearing family. Lois & Roland could not have been more open with their friendship. Their daughters continue to show that friendship to this day. This family certainly has made this world a better place.
