“ I am a high school classmate and friend of Putt. I am an academic and thus always respected his good mind. In my last visit with him, this past fall, it was good to find him much better adjusted to his home. I will miss chatting with my friend about farming, mutual friends, and days gone by. Remember The good times as I do.

Dale,

He spoke of you often with fondness. He was a good thinker and well read in many areas. Thank you for remembering him. He was one of a kind. You were there in a picture of a class reunion.

Best regards,

Larry Dirks
