“ Lowell was such a nice man. Always enjoyed chatting with him at the antique store. His sweet GTO was such a cool car and he loved sharing stories about it. Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in this loss. Rest in peace Lowell...

“ We lived next to Lowell when my oldest daughter was only two, she called him Neighbor Man and was always happy to see him, because he was so friendly and always stopped to talk with her. My little dog went to visit him every evening because he always had a special treat for her. It seems like it was a pork chop every day. :) I've thought about him often over the years, never had a nicer neighbor. My daughter is 30 now and still remembers him.

Steve and Karen, you and Daisy have been foremost in my thoughts these last few weeks as Lowell neared the end of his earthly journey. You were all the rock Lowell needed and I pray for comfort and peace in your hearts, and Katie's.

*Love,
