“ He was my dads first cousin, Gary A Hughes , I remember him and Charlotte always , coming to visit , my fondest memories , is playing with the boys , when they visit . Lawrence was just a baby . I can remember hearing my parents and. Lucian and Charlotte always laughing . When my dad built our house in Liverpool, it was Lucian who came and showed dad how to , do the corners with the bricks . He made it look easy ! I loved him , and I love Charlotte and The boys . I'm sorry he is gone . I know he is Heaven now , and I know all his family was there to greet him. I'm wish I could of seen him before he left us .

Rest In peace Lucien. You gave me some fond memories and taught me some bricklaying tricks I proudly carried the rest of my career. You are my brother.
