“ My name is Mallory and I am a housekeeper at The Elms and a CNA. He and I would always talk about his beautiful house in Havana and how he bought it for his wife and family. He loved you all so much and was always talking about you. He always told me that he thanks God every day for living as long as he had. Always asked me if I thought he would make it to his 93rd birthday, I ALWAYS told him of course because he was strong and we all loved him at The Elms. Prayers to you all! He sure will be missed!
