“ I know we have another precious Angel shining down on us. I worked with Margaret at Memorial Medical Center and I have never known a more soft spoken caring individual. We shared many laughs and tears. She was an excellent nurse but also a very close friend. Over the years we had baby showers, wedding showers, and parties. The unit we worked was stressful and very busy, but we also enjoyed victories and our nurse manager saw to it that we enjoyed life away from work. Margaret was so proud of Ken and her children. We know she is smiling down on us and her suffering days are over. She is enjoying her new life in the arms of our Lord. Bless you Margaret. And my prayers and sympathy are with the family.

“ Ken, remember when you and Margaret and Joe and I vacationed in Michigan years ago? The crazy things we did out in the boat and the trip home with every empty space stacked full of blueberries. Seems just like a couple of years ago. God bless and hang in there.
