

Marian A McDougall

September 22, 1933 - February 7, 2019

Marian McDougall, 85, of Petersburg, IL, passed away on February 7, 2019, at her residence with her daughter by her side. She was born September 22, 1933, to Albert and Eleanor Lynn Carlson in Oakford, IL. Marian married William Dale McDougall on July 29, 1955 at the Oakford Methodist Church. He preceded her in death on November 15, 1987. She was also preceded in death by her parents and her step-father Melvin Cleo Justice, a son Jeffery Dale McDougall and granddaughter Deanna Marie Kisner and uncle Fred Carlson.

Marian is survived by her daughter, Lisa Bristow; grandsons Jason Yager and wife, Melissa, Scott Harmening, Jeffrey Kisner and great granddaughter Gracie Harmening all of Petersburg as well as many cousins in this area as well as Sweden.

Her father and his brothers came to this country from Sweden in 1923 working their way over on a freighter. They were carpenters by trade. Her father settled in this area and her uncle Fred was carpenter at Wrigley Field in Chicago, IL for forty years. Marian lost her father when she only 2 years old but gained a wonderful step-father when her mother married M. Cleo Justice when she was 13 years old. Marian retired from the National Bank of Petersburg

A graveside service be held on Monday, February 11, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at Oakford Cemetery with burial immediately following.

Memorials can be made to the family for her great-granddaughter Gracie's educational fund.

“ Marian was a lovely woman. She lost so many loved ones but kept her cheerful spirit. We remember her sharing her dish pan cookies with all of us on Mac Day and telling about giving them to guys doing work in her home. She will be missed.
