again, adopting Dauson.

“ Tim and I were beyond blessed to have had the privilege of getting to know Marion better these past few years. Her faith- her sense of humor- and her love for her family are just a few of her many attributes that made her so beautiful. She had the most soothing and comforting voice- and many people were blessed on their birthday's to receive a phone call from Marion, singing to them a special birthday song. She brought sincere love and joy to all who knew her. Praying God comforts her family in this time of great loss.
