He was born January 4, 1936, in Knox County, Nebraska, to John and Emma (Anders) Doerr. He married Lillian Shermer on June 9, 1957, at the Zion Lutheran Church in Plainview, Nebraska.

Mr. Doerr is survived by his wife, Lillian, of Springfield; five children: Julie (Virgil) Farnen, Dan (Carie) Doerr, Rhonda Wessel, Darla (David) Ridenour, and Dellis (Jessica) Doerr; seventeen grandchildren; twenty-two great-grandchildren; as well as several nieces and nephews. He always looked forward to traveling home to Nebraska and spending time with his family. While there he could be found in the fields with his brothers. He loved living in an agricultural community where he enjoyed occasionally hitching a ride in a combine with local farmers.

He especially enjoyed family reunions and making homemade ice cream.

After leaving Nebraska Mr. Doerr and his family lived in Renton, WA where he worked at Boeing as an inspector. Then they were off to Indianapolis, IN where he attended and graduated with honors from Indiana College of Mortuary Science. He took his first job at a funeral home in Danville, IL. Mr. Doerr and his family then moved to Havana in 1965 where he owned and operated Doerr Memorial Home. During his 43 years as a mortician and funeral director he also worked at Hurley Funeral Home in Havana and also managed Hurley Funeral Home in Petersburg until his retirement in 2004.

“ Mrs. Doerr and Family,

I am deeply sorry for your loss. Marvin was a steady and respected presence in the Havana and Petersburg communities for many years. As a young man growing up in Havana, I had the privilege of seeing firsthand the dignity and professionalism he brought to the calling of funeral service. Alongside Dick Hurley, he helped shape my early understanding of what it means to care for families during their most difficult moments. His example played a meaningful role in influencing my own path into this profession.

Please know my thoughts and prayers are with your family during this time.

With sincere sympathy,

Jim Hough
