“ Lori and Kevin, some of my fondest memories as a child were of you and your parents. I loved going to your house searching for chicken eggs everywhere. They even laid eggs in the seat of the farm truck! We rode your pony down the road and when we couldn't get it to go home, Mervin pulled it home with a lead rope tied to his truck! Oh how I admired that man! I'm so sorry for your loss. He was one of a kind!
