“ Dear Kathy,
My heart is filled with sorrow over the death of your mother-in-law. I am sure God has taken her to heaven and that she is living her new life of love and happiness in heaven with God and all the other loving people there with her. I pray that you will feel joy and consolation as you continue to love your mother-in-law and rejoice in love and happiness for her in her new life of eternal love and joy in heaven.

You were always a very special helper, co-worker and friend to me, and I cherished our loving friendship for 20 years at the State Board. May God shower you with special love and blessings always.

Much, much love from me, Merv Brennan

Sorry for your loss as will as the community loss. She always had a smile and always ask now who are you? I would tell her remember when you and my mother made all that spaghetti for Band Club then she knew who I was. Also wants a month we would play Bingo with me and she always wanted to know what did I have for prizes because she wanted Chocolate Bars, Good Memories.

“ My daughter Stephanie married into the Fornoff family when she married Mildred’s grandson Heath. I met Mildred at the wedding and then a few more times after that and knew that she was a very special person. She will be missed by everyone, but knowing she is now with her husband, Harry somehow makes the loss more bearable. They are now both looking out and watching over the entire Fornoff family! Rest in Peace Mildred!
My most sincere condolences to the whole family!
