“ I’m so sorry to just learn of Millie’s passing. I worked with her at LLCC, where she had many, many friends. We all loved Millie and her chili. She came in for years after her retirement to bring chili and visit everyone! She was a very special lady! Sorry for your loss!

Millie was our neighbor across the street for many years. We enjoyed her company and missed her when she moved. She had a strong faith and cared for her family and friends. We will always remember her.

*Sincerely,
Chris and Dorothy (Dot) Homeier.*
