“ Wow! My heart is broken. No only were you my "sister-in-law," but a true sister who taught me that Pepsi can replace Coke at times, and never made me feel anything less than a part of your family. Although words can't express the sorrow that I didn't stay in touch more, you never were out of my mind or my heart. We let our busy lives and other things get the in the way, knowing that one day we will be sorry that the time we wanted to use, is no longer available to us, and am grateful that you never were one to hold a grudge, and, I hope, knew how much I loved you. Say hi to Louise and George for me.

Love,

Your heart sister

Sharon (Barnett) Devine

P. S. Enjoy your Pepsi, I hear you don't have to worry about calories up there.

“ How much can you say without running out of words? Aunt Pat was such an inspiration, not only for her outer beauty, but her inner beauty. She was so full of life, her laugh contagious, kind, helpful, compassionate, great at everything she did, never talked bad about anyone, and so much fun! Even as a little girl, although, we "kids" couldn't participate, watching her party games were hilarious and no party I have ever been to as an adult was as much fun. I am so blessed to have grown up in that household, pretty much, and always regret that my kids missed out on all of that fun and fantastic memories. I can only aspire to have a few of her attributes. It's all too surreal to think that you left us to be with Grandma, Grandpa, and Dad, but your memories and thoughts will never leave us. We are grateful and blessed to have had you in our lives, and I know Heaven will definitely be a much livelier and happy place. Goodness, between you and Dad and Grandma, Heaven will never be dull and quite fun and noisy. Thank you for letting me be such a huge part of your life. I love you mucho and my heart breaks to think I won't get to see you on Earth, but, hopefully, will get to go over our "stories" again someday.

Love,

“ So sorry for the loss of our beautiful friend. I loved Pat. I have so many great memories of times with her over the years. Whenever we were together you can be sure there would be lots of laughter. If you were having a bad day, just go see Pat and she would make it better. I wish I had taken time to visit her more in the years past when she was doing well. But, wishful thinking. That's what happens. I guess we should take note of that and try to do better with those we love. Pat, I will think of you and pray you are enjoying your new life with all your family and friends. I know they are surely happy to see you. I love you and look forward to the day when we will laugh together again.

“ Our deepest sympathy to family. I remember Pat when I worked at Spillway as a waitress and when my daughter Tammy dated Jimmy. She was always smiling and was a great gal to know. I remember her golf stories and her bowling friends she bowled with. She will be missed by everyone. God bless you all.
