“ It has been quite some time since her passing but I was recently discussing my childhood with one of my patients and thought of Paula. I lived next door to her until I was about 8 years old. The window over her kitchen sink overlooked the swingset in my yard that I played on often. She used to invite me over to help her bake cookies and drink lemonade on hot summer days. I'm 28 years old now and still have those memories. She was a deeply kind woman and someone I will always remember.

“ My Aunt Paula was one of the kindest human beings on earth. She and my Uncle Don were so good for one another. I am so glad that they had some wonderful years together. I will miss Aunt Paula so very much. She was always happy and she made me laugh a lot. So fair and warm. I hope you and Don are having a laugh up there now. You will certainly be missed on this earth. "May flights of Angels sing thee to thy rest".

You were a steadfast support to Mark and me, and we'll never forget the twinkle in your eye as you 'offered advice' that one time . . . we laughed and blushed then, as we will always. You are already sadly missed, but you will be pleasantly remembered. Our sympathies to your much loved family.*

Paula was a friend to all and a great listener which is a lost art. May she be reunited in heaven with all who have gone before her and know those of us remaining on earth will always love her and cherish the moments we shared together.

Paula will be missed by her classmates. I was privileged to have been one of them for only two and one half years but she always made me feel special for knowing her. Heaven has a bright and smiling face to add to the angels.
