“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Eric! Sending prayers to you and all your family! Peggy welcomed me into her family when I was just sixteen and married her son! She always had a smile and was so kind to me!! Even as Eric and I parted ways, she stayed in my life and was a wonderful grandmother to our son. She will always hold a special place in my heart.

Peggy was such a sweet and kind lady. She loved our church and hearing the choir sing. Always smiled at me and I always enjoyed my short visits with her. My sincerest sympathy to all of her family. No more pain for her now. 🙏

“ Eric and family I am sorry for the loss of your mom, and grandmother. I am praying for a peace and comfort that surpasses all understanding. Eric I thank you for faithfully serving God by honoring and taking such good care of your mom. Thank you for faithfully talking to her about the love of Christ and sharing with her how much she was loved by Him. I am believing that she went home to be with her maker our Father in Heaven.

Scott, Eric and Dustin sorry for your loss. You mom was a wonderful friend for many years. Smitty and Harold worked together for years at Fleming Potter. We enjoyed their company over the years. Peg always kept in touch in these later years. Wish I had still been in the Peoria area to visit her more.
