

Randall Bruce Frankum

March 5, 1956 - February 27, 2021

Randall Bruce Frankum, 64, passed away on Saturday, February 27, 2021 at his home in Petersburg, Illinois. Randy was born on March 5, 1956 in El Campo, TX.

He grew up in Wharton and was known as “The Pitcher with the Golden Arm.” At an early age, Randy was gifted with being an outstanding baseball player. At age 9 he won the Astro-KANI Boys Contest. Made All-Stars from Pee-Wee League through high school. His talent didn’t go unnoticed. Upon graduating from high school in 1974 he was drafted by the New York Mets as a pitcher. Randy never met a stranger, loved his family, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

Randy is preceded in death by his parents, Bobby Bruce Frankum and Patricia Jeannette Brown Frankum and great Nephew, Cooper Clayton Medve.

Randy is survived by his daughter Amelia Mesirow (Thomas), daughter Candice Boyack (Chad), son Rance Frankum (Kimberly); grandchildren, John Michael, Carson, Alexis, Kaylee, Alaina, Wyatt, Luke, James, Michael, and Eleanor; great grandchildren, George and Owen; sisters, Pamela Frankum Barker (Timothy) and Sarah Frankum (significant other Ben Schielack); nieces and nephews, Jason, Jill, Jarrett, Kelly, Katy, and Chad; great nieces and nephews, Presley, Tyson, Blake, Harper, Kade, Kyler, Karter, Kinley, Kasen, Emmory, Bryce, and Braxton; and his wife, Linda.

A celebration of life was held to honor Randy on Saturday, March 6, 2021 by his family and friends. Stories and remembrance were shared. Randy will forever be in our hearts and minds. Welcome home to Texas.

Hurley Funeral Home in Petersburg, IL assisted the family with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Randall Bruce Frankum

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM

“ A sympathy card was purchased for the family of Randall Bruce Frankum.

June 05, 2022 at 12:38 PM