

Rhonda Eitenmiller

October 30, 1955 - January 19, 2024

Rhonda Eitenmiller (Kemper), 68, passed away suddenly at her home in Manito on the morning of Jan. 19, 2024. Rhonda was born in Winchester, IL. She married the love of her life, Dean Eitenmiller, in 1973. Early in their marriage, Dean gifted his bride the home that she lived in her whole life - where she raised her two children (Todd and Ann). Some of the family's favorite memories include the holidays, her world famous homemade noodles, and her calming words of wisdom after a long day of work at Pekin Savings.

Rhonda cared deeply for family, friends, her Australian Labradoodle (Sissy), and her 68 years of Manito connections. She is survived by her son Todd Eitenmiller (Morton, IL), daughter Ann Topoll (Waunakee, WI), son-in-law Tim Topoll, two grandchildren who were the light of her life, Hannah (19) and Nathan (15), and brothers Craig Kemper (Coal City, IL) and David Kemper (Fuquay-Varina, NC). Special thanks to brother and sister-in-law Kevin and Susan Kemper (Green Valley, IL) for their incredible love, care and help during Rhonda's final months.

Rhonda is preceded by her parents Lara Doyle and George Kemper, her husband of 50 years Dean Eitenmiller, and siblings Michael Kemper, Vicky Richardson, and Pam Kemper. In accordance with her wishes, there will be no services.

Maas-Hurley Funeral Home in Manito is in charge of arrangements.

“ As you all know Rhonda was my dearest and closest friend through almost 60 years . We've been through our school years and marrying our spouses and having our kids close together. We were confidants for a long time. I knew one of us would surely go before the other but this was a shock for everyone who knew and cared for her. I will miss her sense of humor, her smile and generous nature and our daily talks on the phone. She was definitely one of a kind. R.I.P bff ❤️
