“ Rod was my stepfather. He was married to my mother, Beverly Minor for over 17 years. They adored each other. Unfortunately, my mother passed suddenly at the age of 44. They had two beautiful children of their own, and Rod did all he could to also take on 3 more children my mother already had. They loved taking us camping, cooking out, going to the lake to fish! He is buried next to my momma. Their love is continuing as God sent him to be with her. Love and miss you both!
