“ Rollie was a very dear friend of mine whom I worked with at Lacrosse Lumher and we were unloading a delivery truck full of drywall sheets and several had been removed. I was in the truck and he was on the ground. The truck shifted and the drywall fell and I was pinned between it and the drywall and couldn't breathe so Rollie started pulling them off by himself and freed me from the weight of them pinning me. I broke my wrist and ankle and because of Rollies effort it wasn't worse. We were always good friends. May God Bless him. Your friend, Doug
