“ You have our sincere thoughts and prayers. Sure sorry we could not attend the visitation or funeral as we were at our daughter's for a long Thanksgiving weekend. I will always have wonderful memories of growing up with Ron, from starting Sunday School together at age 3 all the way through high school graduation. He was a great friend. May God wrap His loving arms around all Ron's family and give you peace and comfort. Our sincere sympathy, Larry and Connie Ary

“ I was shocked to hear of Ron’s death, and I’m so sorry. It’s so tough for you to lose him so soon after loosing Kay. I’m sure he’s happy to be with her now. I can’t make it down to the church for the visitation, but I will send a memorial to the Diabetes Assn.
