“ *We have many fond memories of Ron--especially his support for the Havana High School golf team and his golfing years at Lakewood Golf Course. He was a kind and generous man who touched many lives during the years. Ron always had a smile and a way of making us feel good. His commitment to Havana has been very evident and he will be greatly missed. Our prayers and thoughts go out to Diane and all of Ron's family and extended family. Rest in peace Ron!!!

“ Ron loved his family, his friends, and his community. Working with him on economic development issues for Havana was always a pure joy. He was ever hopeful and always kind. I last saw Ron about two months ago and immediately received a hug. He has left a beautiful, lasting impression and a true example of how to live a life of service. “ My sincere condolences to the the family of RJ. We have truly lost someone special. Though I didn't know RJ as well, he is someone I respected and enjoyed hanging out with.

I first met RJ at the ATO house when I was a senior at Monmouth College. He just showed up during the middle of what was an ordinary week and not some special event like Homecoming. RJ was having an ordinary day that day, but while driving in his car somewhere, the Eddie Money song, "I Wanna Go Back," came on the radio. RJ said as he listed to the lyrics, it reminded him of his days in college at the ATO House. He decided right then he'd cancel everything he had going that day and drove strait to Monmouth right then and there.

All of us in the house that time were very impressed and felt somewhat flattered that he thought of us. As I got to know RJ better over those next few years, I realized what kind of guy he was; fun and full of life. He knew what was important and that life shouldn't be going to business meetings every day. But instead, make time to spend time with those you love. That's a huge lesson I learned from RJ, and one I still try to practice every day.

RJ graduated roughly 10 years before I, but as ATO brothers, our fraternal bond knows know passage of time. I regret I didn't stay in touch with RJ over the years. But I trust he's in a better place, without pain, probably looking down upon us with a smile on his face from all the stories being recounted.

“ My condolences to Diane and the entire family. I do have a memory to share from New Central School. I was in 6th grade and Ronnie (as we knew him then) was in 8th grade. There was a couple who came to the school, The Cunningham's, who taught us how to dance. They worked with us to learn, the Cha-Cha, Lindy Hop, and Waltz to name a few. At the end of our classes, they had an opportunity for our families to come and see what we had learned. It was held in the Old New Central gym and the boys had to ask the girls to dance. We were sitting there on the bleachers waiting and Ronnie came up to me and asked me to dance. I could not believe it! The eighth grade boys were like the ultimate guys to the 6th grade girls. I was scared to death. We went onto the floor and performed our dance perfectly, even though my knees were shaking. It was one of the highlights of my middle school years as you can tell from the fact that I still remember it. That day Ronnie made me feel very special and I will always be grateful to him for that.
