“ Sharon was so feisty and funny. I will forever remember the good times with her, Pam, Candy and her family. I'm first met her when she came to St. Louis to spent time with Pam. I loved and was impressed by the closeness she shared with her sisters. The love and respect they shared was evident. .we had good times over the years on her visits to STL - wine and dinner on the rooftop deck, wine and food at the many STL restaurants, wine and dinner at Candy's as we prepared for a garage sale - there seems to be a wine theme.
I am thankful our paths crossed and I know her family and friends will miss her bright smile the times together. I will cherish the wonderful memories forever.

“ Pam & family—my deepest sympathy—I saw Sharon a couple months ago and didn't recognize her—she was so thin, but said she was plugging along. Always with a smile—
Such fond memories over the years—we will always have 2 Brothers!
