“ So sad our neighbor Sharon passed away suddenly leaving us in shock. We will miss her happy smile and big wave as she passed by our house many times a day to & from Dollar General. She was such a great manager working hard and trying her best! Our first enjoyment of the family was getting to babysit Emmett daily as an infant. He grew up to be our yard helper until he graduated high school. God keep these friends wrapped in his arms we pray. David and Diane

“ I met Sharon years ago when she worked at Dollar General. She became a friend immediately. Sharon always had a smile and was so helpful to everyone who entered the store. She was a wonderful friend and so helpful to all of us at the store. We missed her presence at the store and I am so sad she is gone. Sharon loved her siblings and shared lots of stories of their families. Rest in Peace Sharon, you will be missed by those that knew you....
