“ Sherry and I graduated high school together. You always knew when she was around by her infectious laugh. She was a fun-loving person to be around. We really didn't see each other much after high school. We did visit her and Donnie when my son Jeff and her son Greg were small. Jeff and Greg weren't very old at the time, toddlers even. Rest in peace, my friend. Judy Heffren/Wickert

“ So sorry. Praying for you all.
Sherry, was my cousin, (Connie Stewart) her mother was a sister of my mother Rosa Stewart. Sherry married, and about six months later I got married to Thurman Strange, and she wanted me to wear her wedding gown, so I did and I still get compliments on how the beautiful gown she was.
