“ I remember Shirley coming to Widgi with Janice and kids. She always seemed to have a twinkle in her smile! It was quite a few years ago, but I still have fond memories. My thoughts are with her family.

“ She was a light to the world, starting with her family radiating out to the rest of the world. ,
She always had that kind of gleam in her eye.
She will be missed but remembered.

So thankful to have had a long history with her.
