“ To all the family .... So many memories of this fine gentleman. He worked on our lawn mowers, so our grass didn't grow to the heighth of our roof...he always made sure we could get out there and mow. He delivered our mail no matter what the weather and never complained, and in fact he was always laughing and joking when those snows came. Then at the cafe, we ate good food Stanley helped prepare. We truly believe there was never a finer man made by the Lord. We should all be jealous of the angels in heaven, that Stanley will be be there with them, and looking down upon us still laughing and joking. We will hold our memories dear to our heart.

*Love to all.....
Carla and Barry*
