“ We hope it is some comfort to you to know how many people are sharing your sorrow. Loren, you and Steph are such a part of our fondest memories since Laura's earliest recollections are of of your wedding day and her flower girl experience. We pray that time and your own memories will bring you peace.

“ This truly shocks me. My condolences Loren to you and her family. I've known Stephanie her whole life....used to babysit her. She was such a cute little girl....always thought of her as a little Shirley Temple. She grew into a shy but kind young lady which says a lot for how she was raised. Stephanie married, moved away, and we lost contact, and in my mind's eye she is still the "little girl" I babysat for. That makes her death so shocking to me. May she Rest In Peace and her family learn how heal upon losing her.

“ I was so blessed to have had Steph in my life for so many years. She was my best friend, my rock, she was always a phone call away. We shared so many fun times: long talks about everything, boating, fishing tournament, Longaberger and Silpada. She will be so missed. I am lucky to have so many memories to keep her in my daily life. Thank you Stephanie for being you.

“ I was truly blessed to know Stephanie. She was the kindest, most beautiful soul. She went with me to try on wedding dresses, sat with my son while he was in the hospital, offered a kind ear whenever I needed it, and so many more wonderful memories I am so thankful to have. The world will be a little bit dimmer without her light in it.
