“ *Candy
My deepest sympathy. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the whole family. I truly enjoyed the time I would spend with you and Steve at conferences. May the good Lord watch over you and help ease your sorrow over the loss of a great guy.

So sorry to hear of Steve's passing. He always had such a fun comforting way about him. Scott was just saying how he enjoyed it so much when he worked at "Harry's" and Steve would come in and chat with him. We both hope you can find some type of comfort in this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Candy, Steve (or Wahlert, as we always called him) was one of my best friends in the old days. He had his license before many of us did, and was the designated driver for many many high school shenanigans. He was an everyday regular for a Coke and a bag of peanuts when I had the gas station and we drank more beer in the Heidi Ho than I'd like to admit... but he was a good friend and partner in crime many years ago, and I'm so sorry things went the way they did. I am, however, so glad you two found one another. He always wanted a wife and family, and we are all so glad for your years together. I'm not sure I'll make it down for services, but please accept my sincere condolences. Matt Lowers
