“ What a special and dear friend I've lost. We would laugh and share family stories at our regular get togethers for lunch or evening meals. I would get caught up with Sherrie, Dink, nieces and nephews stories as she shared them with joy. We shared tears over passing parents, both hers and mine. We watched Brit grow from a young child, to a silly teenager who chased a UPS truck in Manitou her senior year to get her prom dress to struggles and finally success to become an outstanding nurse. Of course, glowing with pride! Brylee was a large part of our conversations and how happy Terrie was that Brit, Merf and Brylee were a beautiful family. Jim, thank you for taking such great care of my friend. I witnessed such love, happiness and commitment on July 6, 2025 in a beautiful celebration of marriage. So sorry you did not have a longer life together. I'm sad we will not have those monthly get togethers we were planning when she retired next month. So thankful for the ones we've had. Her big beautiful smile keeps me going. Joyce Aarestad
