Ted served on the Kilbourne Township Board for many years. Ted's most prized possession was his love and service for the Lord. He loved to serve God by sharing his faith with others and loved good fellowship and music. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend and would help anyone, no matter the need. He was full of kindness and compassion, and he never failed to greet you with a big smile and a "God Bless You." Ted was a pillar of his community and will be greatly missed by all. Ted is survived by his wife, Shelby, his children; Dean (Lori) Sisson and Jeanine (Darrell) Walters, 4 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren, and his dog, Job. “ When I think of Ted I remember the flat bed truck he drove and that big dog of his on the bed barking at everything and never falling off! He was always kind to us and would plow open our drive when it snowed. Remembering Kilbourne is remembering Ted Sisson. Prayers and blessings for your loss. Diana Shoemaker Lind
