“ To Miff and all of the Family,
What a strong woman was Vicki! She helped me through making some hard decisions a few years ago when I had a similar diagnosis. She was so very kind and helped in many ways. We have some great memories of traveling with both Vicki and Miff on various trips. One that stands out is a particularly fun night in San Francisco, the memory of which we will always cherish. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time.

“ So very sad to hear this. Vicki was a class act and always kind to me. This is a huge loss to a wonderful family. Just so sorry to you all. She will be missed and not forgotten.

“ Vicki was one of the strongest women I ever knew. As a multiple cancer survivor myself, I have to say that she fought it for a very long time. When we would run into each other from time to time, we would remind each other to keep on fighting. And I'm sure she did to the very end. God rest her soul and grant peace and comfort to you all.
