“ I used to be in a High School P.E. class with Vicky. She was soooo funny and Miss Halleck was soooo not funny!!! We had a blast in that class getting people to do things that irritated Miss Halleck to the point she'd start throwing her clipboard in the air, muttering the whole time!! Vicky came to the Post Office the day she had her last cigarette because she had used Chantix. She was soooo happy and proud that she had quit! Then everytime she came in , after that, she'd tell us how many days since she'd last smoked a cigarette. I'll miss Vicky's laugh and all the stories she told about her family.

“ Vicky was always so funny in High School. We had P.E. class together and we spent most of it laughing! And I really enjoyed seeing her when she'd come to the Post Office. She was so proud that she had quit smoking . And she always entertained us with stories about her kids and grandkids. I'll miss her laughter and that darn perfect hair!
