

Virgie A. Craig

July 13, 1955 - October 27, 2020

Virgie A. Craig, 65, of Havana, passed away at Memorial Medical Center, in Springfield, at 2:50 p.m., on Tuesday, October 27, 2020. She was born July 13, 1955, in Paincourtville, Louisiana, to Robert and Helen (Daigle) Albarado.

Mrs. Craig is survived by two children: Mary Craig of Tennessee and David Craig, of Havana, as well as three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two nieces and four great nieces. She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Gloria Pitt.

Mrs. Craig was a faithful servant of the Lord and an active member of Havana Church of Christ, where she enjoyed Bible Study and other activities. She had also been a member of Vision Support Group through JACIL. While living in Louisiana, she had assisted the elderly in their homes.

Cremation rites have been accorded and a small family burial will be held at Ipava Cemetery on Tuesday, November 10, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.. A Celebration of Life will be held at her church, when more of her friends and family are able to gather together.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. Online memorial messages may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.

“ I remember long ago sitting around the family table with all of you playing Uno one night during the holiday season and Aunt Virgie got to laughing which made all of us laugh.

She will be missed. Her and Gloria are laughing up a storm in heaven looking over your family smiling.

Thinking of you and wishing you moments of peace and comfort during this difficult time.

Our family is keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Virgie, just like her sister Gloria, had the gift of making others feel special. I barely knew her, and yet she'd greet me as if we'd always been friends. She seemed to be filled with joy and love. My condolences go out to her family and loved ones.
