“ Vivian Bree was one of the most amazing and caring person i had ever met. We spent a lot of time together. Watering her flowers and some days just sitting there talking. She was always excited to see me. And when I found out I was having a baby it made her even more excited. She just couldn't wait. At 7 months I finally came up with a name that I thought she would like. So I went to Vivian and asked if I could name my baby girl after her. She was so shocked to hear I wanted to name her Vivian but was so honored she couldn't wait. The day I brought baby Vivian home from the hospital we stopped to we could see her. She was so very proud of baby Vivian she told everybody! She even gave baby Vivian a little white lamb that says the lords preyer. I loved Vivian Bree like she was my own family. She will never be forgotten.
